

The Greater Grand Forks Community Theatre – 2012

Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog, - This whacky musical comedy finds Dr. Horrible and his arch nemesis Captain Hammer fighting over Penny as Dr. Horrible vies for status in the super villain league. This cult classic became popular as a three-act webisode starring Neil Patrick Harris. Dec. 13th & 14th, 9:30 p.m.

*Not for children.

Turn Your Radio Up – an old-time, country radio show comes to the Fire Hall, courtesy of director David Paukert (directs at Frost Fire Mountain each summer). Feb. 4 at 7:30 and Feb. 5 at 2 p.m. and 7:30.

Cinderella – Enchanted, First join us for the pre-show of “Rats,” the story of the Pied Piper, when some 30 children take to the stage in this delightful rendering of the classic tale, followed by another 50 children in the Rodgers and Hammerstein fairytale version of the girl with a glass slipper. (This is the one that aired on CBS in the 1970s) Feb. 23-March 4th, Th-Saturday at 7 p.m. and Sundays at 2 at the Empire Arts Center.

Almost, Maine – This contemporary play will leave you smiling as you witness four different couples and four different stories about love in the fictitious town of Maine as the Aurora Borealis plays across the night sky. April 15-May 5, Thurs. – Saturdays at 7:30, Sundays at 2 p.m., at the Fire Hall Theatre.

Ruthless! (the musical) – When a pushy stage-mom discovers she can really belt, she shoves her kid off-stage to steal the spotlight for herself. June 14-30th at the Fire Hall Theatre. Thurs. – Saturdays at 7:30, Sundays at 2 p.m.

Please reserve your seats by calling 701-777-4090. Your tickets will be at the box office (Fire Hall or Empire, depending on show) for your convenient pick-up the night of performance.