

Pulitzers in Pubs

Join us each month for a lively discussion of a decade of Pulitzer prize-winning plays.

Why? You have to ask? Really? Okay . . .

1. These are brilliant pieces of literature.
2. It is rare to see them produced on local and regional stages due to casting or content challenges.
3. It's hard to find plays on bookstore shelves, so you're not likely to stumble upon them while browsing.
4. Play readers are a small tribe. Find your tribe.
5. Plays are a quick read. Perfect for busy people to pick up and finish in a short sitting.

Where? Joe Black's in downtown Grand Forks except for Next to Normal and Hamilton, which will take place at the Fire Hall Theatre, 412 N 2nd Avenue. These are musicals and we will listen to select songs from the cast album.

Who? Dr. Darin Kerr will facilitate the discussions.

Cost: This series is free, supported by a grant from the ND Humanities Council, which receives funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Drinks and lavosh are extra. *We even have a few copies to handout each month for the next month's reading, thanks to the NDHC.

When? Pulitzers in Pubs will take place at 4 p.m. on Sundays, except for Hamilton on Dec. 30th.

March 26 - Rabbit Hole, by David Lindsey-Abaire

April 30 - August: Osage County by Tracy Letts

May 21 - Ruined by Lynn Nottage April

June 18 - Next to Normal by Tom Kitt and Brian Yorkey

July 23 - Clybourne Park, by Bruce Norris

August 27 - Water by the Spoonful by Quiara Alegria Hudes

September 24 - Disgraced by Ayad Akhtar

October 22 - The Flick by Annie Baker (or The Humans – TBD)

November 19 - Between Riverside and Crazy, by Stephen Adly Guirgis

Dec. 30 (Sat.) - Hamilton, by Lin-Manuel Miranda

Questions? info@ggfc.com | 701-746-0847 |
Presented by the Greater Grand Forks Community Theatre, at home at the Fire Hall Theatre in downtown Grand Forks.

